Prologue

Every letter has a story.
Some letters whisper, some letters sing,
and some letters—like G—
stride in proudly with golf clubs, gorillas, and guitars.

This book is part of a magical journey where each letter becomes a friend, arriving at Bunny's door with surprises, games, and gentle lessons.
Together, they teach us words, open doors to new adventures,
and remind us that learning can feel like a sunny morning walk or a concert under the stars.

The letter G is special.
It stands tall like a flag on the green,
swings strong like a gorilla in the jungle,
and hums soft like a guitar on a quiet night.

So open your heart,
turn the page,
and let's join Bunny, Mama Hare, and Letter G
on a day filled with games, animals, music, and wonder.

Because when letters come alive,
every word becomes a little adventure—
and every adventure ends with a smile.

Letter G — Golf, Gorillas & Guitars!

Early in the morning, Little Bunny was still fast asleep when the phone rang.

"Hello, this is Letter G speaking.
Is Bunny ready for the day?"
Mama Hare: "Hello, G! Yes, we'll be ready when G comes over!"

He rang the doorbell.
